PIVOT OR PERSEVERE

Under your line? That is a decision, not a failure

Your last test: did half your paying customers come back?

Both are progress. The only miss: no line, so no decision

WHAT RESEARCH SAYS

Founding is stressful, and often satisfying

One study finds more strain. A meta-analysis of 94 studies finds a little more satisfaction

More strain · one US study of 242 founders were affected by a mental health condition, their own or their family's

49% · 32% reported a lifetime condition, founders against a comparison group

A little more satisfaction · 94 studies

More positive wellbeing than employees, life satisfaction included

Same ill-being. Where the rule of law is weak, founders fare worse

RESEARCH Freeman, Staudenmaier, Zisser and Andresen (2019), Small Business Economics, 242 founders, self-report. Stephan, Rauch and Hatak (2023), Entrepreneurship Theory and Practice, 94 studies in 82 countries.

WHY FAILURE HURTS

This is real, not weakness

Rejection activates a region physical pain does

The same region, not the same pain

All your worth in one basket

When "I am my startup", its failure feels like yours

Replaying it makes it last longer

Rumination keeps a low mood going

Grief keeps no timetable

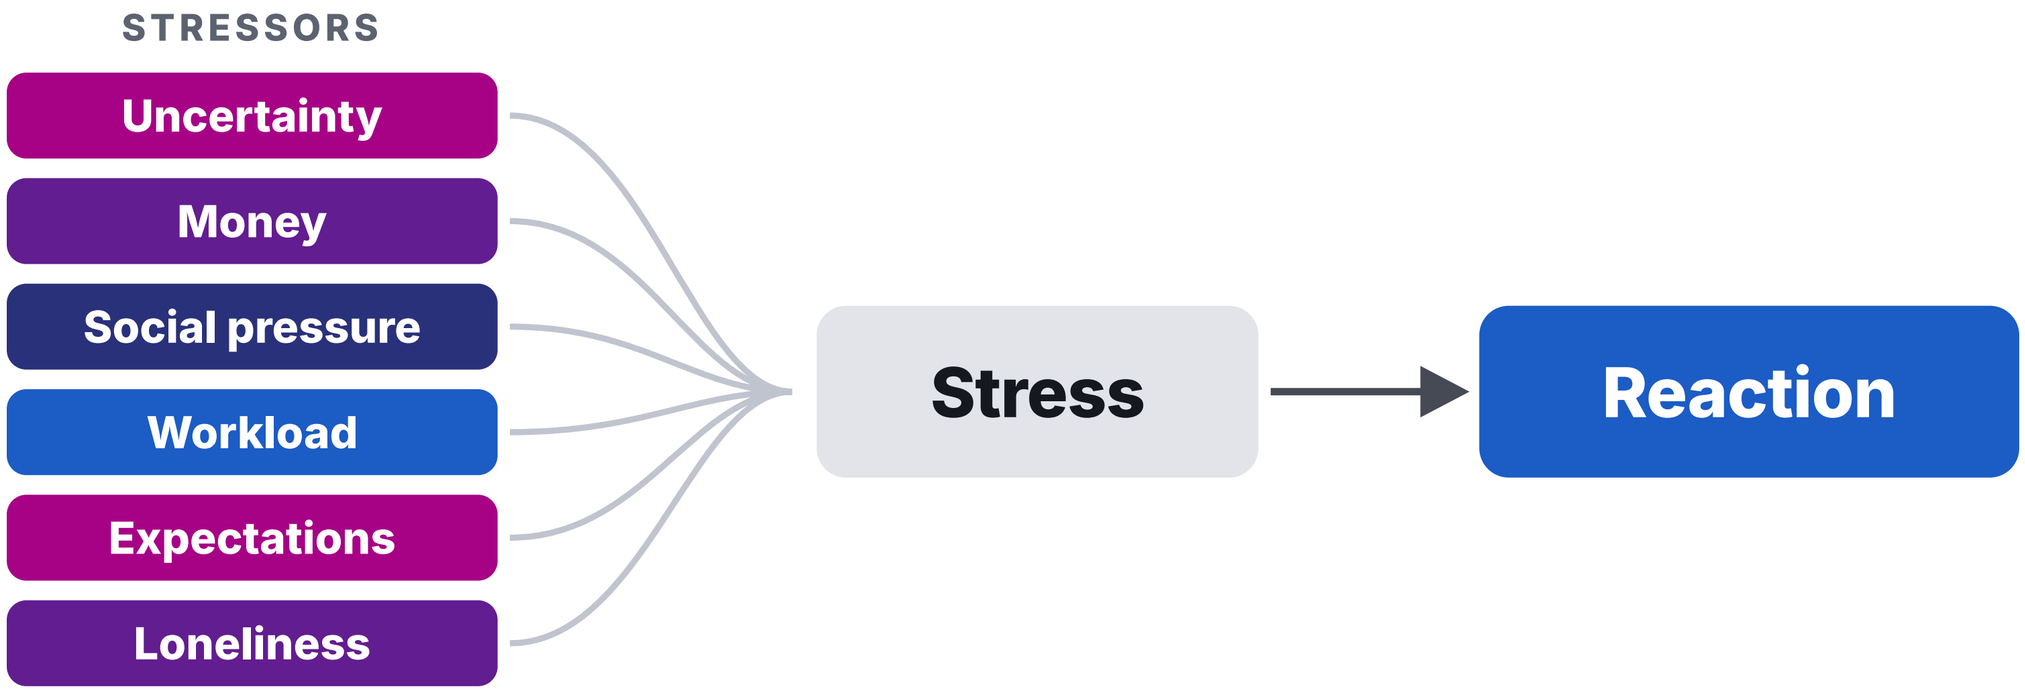

After a loss, expecting fixed stages can hurt those who don't follow them

RESEARCH Eisenberger, Lieberman and Williams (2003), Science. Crocker and Wolfe (2001), Psychological Review. Nolen-Hoeksema (1991), Journal of Abnormal Psychology. Stroebe, Schut and Boerner (2017), OMEGA.

UNDERSTANDING DISTRESS

Know where your stress comes from

Stressor, stress, reaction. For founders, six sources

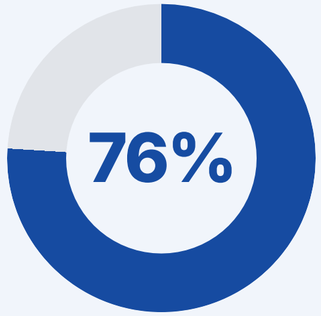

Loneliness added by the course from the 76%. Related research: Wach et al. (2021), Journal of Business Venturing, a diary study of 55 founders. Fernet et al. (2016), loneliness links founder stress to burnout.

INPUT 3 OF 6 · FEEL IT · THE ANSWERS

Feel it: lonely, painful and real

Why is founding so lonely?

76% of founders feel lonely, and some decisions you make alone

Why does failure hurt so much?

Rejection activates a region physical pain does. It is real, not weakness

Where does your stress come from?

Six sources: uncertainty, money, social pressure, workload, expectations, loneliness

From the labels to what you really need

The labels you give me

What you really need

FROM EXTERNAL TO INTERNAL SELF · THINK, ALONE

Who would you be without the labels?

If there were no Instagram and no LinkedIn, who would you like to be?

If there were no one to impress, no one to judge you, what would you do?

If you had none of your achievements to show, how would you describe yourself?

TAKING CARE OF YOURSELF

Six practices, grouped as doing, planning and living

Doing	Planning	Living
Gratitude	Reflection	Exercise
Appreciation		Meditation
		Sleep

WHAT THE EVIDENCE SAYS, PER PRACTICE

Real effects, mostly small. Keep one

🏃 Exercise	In people with depression, walking or jogging beat usual care or a placebo	`g = −0.62, moderate, low certainty`
😴 Sleep	After a good night, founders judged new venture ideas better	`3 studies with founders`
✍️ Reflection	An evening note on what weighs on you helps, a little	`r = .075, 146 trials`
🙏 Gratitude	Lifts well-being a little, no more than other good exercises	`d = .17, small`
🧘 Meditation	Eases anxiety and depression a little	`0.38 and 0.30 at 8 weeks, 47 trials`

RESEARCH Noetel et al. (2024), BMJ, 218 trials. Gish et al. (2019), Journal of Business Venturing. Frattaroli (2006), Psychological Bulletin, 146 trials. Davis et al. (2016), Journal of Counseling Psychology. Goyal et al. (2014), JAMA Internal Medicine, 47 trials.

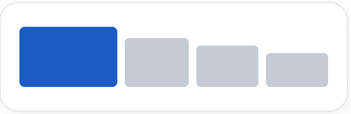

WHAT ACTUALLY HELPS · THE EVIDENCE

Five things research backs

- ⏳ You recover faster than you predict
- 🤲 Self-compassion goes with less anxiety and depression
- 🗣️ Change the sentence. "The startup failed", not "I am a failure"
- 🪞 Get distance. Talk to yourself by name, read the racing heart as fuel
- 🌱 After hard events, resilience is the norm, about two in three

RESEARCH Gilbert et al. (1998), JPSP. MacBeth and Gumley (2012), 14 studies. Abramson, Seligman and Teasdale (1978). Kross et al. (2014). Jamieson, Nock and Mendes (2012). Galatzer-Levy, Huang and Bonanno (2018), 54 studies.

WHEN IT'S OVER · GERMANY, GMBH OR UG

Four rules to know before you close

Orientation only, as of 2026. Not legal advice

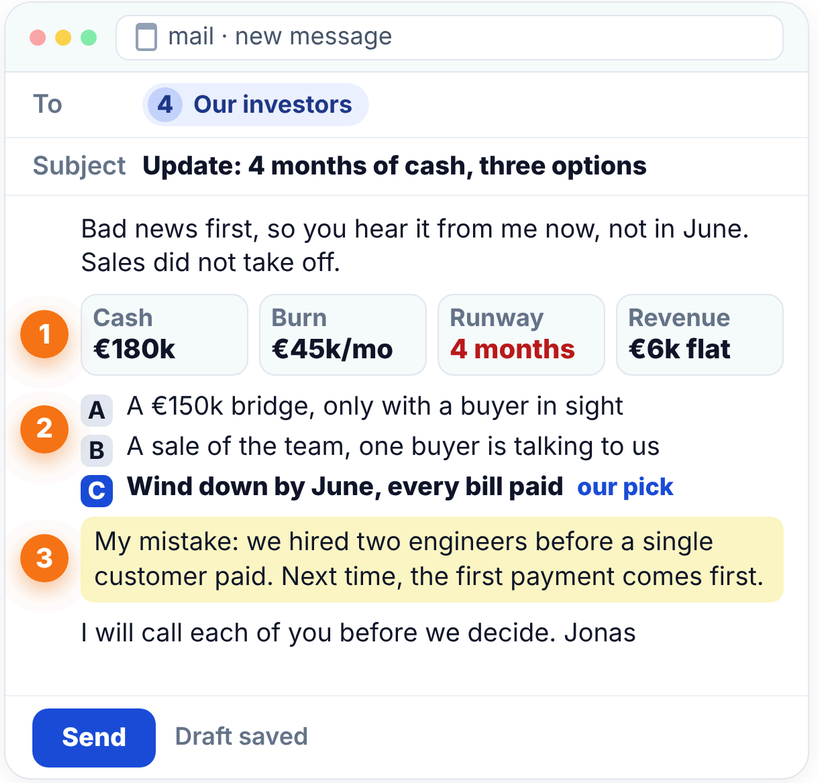

Insolvent?	File without delay, at the latest 3 weeks after illiquidity, 6 weeks after over-indebtedness. Waiting longer is a crime.	§15a InsO
Solvent?	Liquidation takes a year at least. After the public call to creditors, the blocking year runs before anything goes back to shareholders.	§73 GmbHG
Afterwards	Someone keeps the books for 10 years, often a founder.	§74 GmbHG
Job ends?	Register as job-seeking at least 3 months before the job ends, or within 3 days of knowing. Your team too.	§38 SGB III

DATA German law as of 20 October 2026, gesetze-im-internet.de: §15a InsO, §73, §65 and §74 GmbHG, §38 and §159 SGB III. Orientation only, not legal advice.

WHEN IT'S OVER

Facing disappointed investors, no surprises

1. No surprises. Share bad news early, in writing, with numbers. Keep the updates coming when it gets bad.
2. Bring options, not just the problem. Bridge, pivot, sale or acqui-hire, orderly wind-down, plus your recommendation.
3. Own it. No blame, no spin. Say what you would do differently.
4. Close the loop. A final update. What happened, what's left and who gets it, where the team landed. Then say thank you.
5. Know their math. About 3 in 4 US venture-backed startups don't return investors' capital, by Ghosh's count. Pros expect losses, not surprises. Angels, friends and family, call them personally.

ILLUSTRATIVE Rule 5, Gage, D. (2012, 20 September). The venture capital secret. 3 out of 4 start-ups fail. The Wall Street Journal, on Shikhar Ghosh's research. Email made up, screen prototyped for this course.

HOMEWORK UNTIL NEXT TIME

Reach €5,000 cumulative revenue from outside your social graph, keep the private maps you chose, of what drains and energises you, for seven days, and hold one honest co-founder conversation that ends in one agreed change in your Team sheet, with a revisit date.

7 days, your map, one conversation

The learning floor is €2,000 cumulative and the conversation with its written change.

Your stop line. "If I catch myself [my sign] twice this week, I tell my co-founder and take the next evening off."

HOMEWORK · HOW TO DO IT

Map it privately, sell daily

The map is an offer. Skip it without a reason

1. Start or continue your map today, on paper or in a note only you see. Each stressful moment and its source, then what energises you.
2. Keep one practice that research backs. Sleep, exercise, an evening note or gratitude. Not all four.
3. Pack the scary bits first, what must happen before Demo Day. Your pipeline founder from Product management (M10) keeps selling every day.
4. Ask AI for a blind read of your pipeline, raw notes without names or your hypothesis. Say where it disagrees.

! Watch out. Your map never goes into an AI tool or a shared file.

5. Read your map on day seven. Your three strongest drains, and why? Tell your team "yes, seven days" or "no".
6. Draft your pitch, ugly. Ten slides in Sequoia's order.

WORKSHOP · THE MAP FOR STEP 1

Know where your stress comes from

Stressor, stress, reaction. For founders, six sources

WORKSHOP · STEP 1 OF 3

Map what drains you

1 STEP 1 · 25 MIN

MAP WHAT DRAINS YOU

Know what drains and energises you. Alone

→ Three questions in writing: what I told myself, my reflex, what stays
→ Map the last two weeks: each stressful moment and its source
→ Map what gave you energy
→ Stop line: a sign others see, how often, what then
→ Pick one practice you keep this week

Output Map, stop line and practice, kept by you

DRAINS, THE LAST TWO WEEKS

Money	A late payer, third reminder
Uncertainty	The pilot decision slipped again
Workload	Three nights past 1 am
Social pressure	"When do you get a real job?"
Loneliness	Sunday alone with the numbers

GAVE ME ENERGY

+ A customer: "this saved my Monday"
+ Climbing on Thursday

Stop line. If I go silent twice in 7 days, I tell my co-founder.

Practice. Sleep, phone out of the bedroom.

25:00

WORKSHOP · STEP 2 OF 3

Say how you really are

2 STEP 2 · 40 MIN

SAY HOW YOU REALLY ARE

Every founder says how they are. One change

→ Open your Team (M01) agreement in the Team sheet
→ Go round once. Listen, don't fix. Anyone may pass
→ Needs, values, expectations, communication style, energy
→ Agree one change until your next big deadline, with a revisit date
→ Each founder confirms, dated

Output One change in your Team sheet, every founder's yes

Minutes 40

40:00

WORKSHOP · STEP 3 OF 3

Pack the scary bits first

3 STEP 3 · 25 MIN

PACK THE SCARY BITS FIRST

A week your team can hold that still sells

→ Name what must happen next and keeps slipping
→ Put them in first, each with an owner and a day
→ Write your team line in your new Team sheet row
→ Copy the bar, pick your level, euros by midweek
→ One follow-up each, to a Pipeline lead or a customer's referral

Output Your week, the team line, the bar picked, asks sent

Minutes 25

ARRIVED EMPTY-HANDED?

Start with the agreement

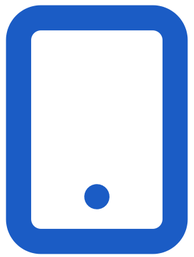

No Team (M01) agreement? Write its Time and Feedback rows first. Solo? Hold Step 2 with a peer founder or mentor.

HOMEWORK UNTIL NEXT TIME

Reach €5,000 cumulative revenue from outside your social graph, keep the private maps you chose, of what drains and energises you, for seven days, and hold one honest co-founder conversation that ends in one agreed change in your Team sheet, with a revisit date.

7 days, your map, one conversation

The learning floor is €2,000 cumulative and the conversation with its written change.

Your stop line. "If I catch myself [my sign] twice this week, I tell my co-founder and take the next evening off."

Look after each other. See you next time!
